LENTEN SERVICES

At the Cathedral Are Drawing Large Congregations.

REV. PATHER MEADE, OF MINGO,

Was Last Night's Visiting Clargy-man, and He Delivered an Inter-esting Discourse on "Repentance," and One that is Appropriate to the Season-Father Ross, of Coshocton, the Next Speaker.

At the Cathedral interesting Lenter and Fridays of each week. On Wed-nesdays throughout the Lenten season, a sermon will be delivered by some priest of other cities. Last evening the Rev. Father John Meade, of Mingo Junction, delivered a discourse upon the topic "Repentance," and the church was crowded to the doors. Next Wednesday the Rev. Father

Walter Ross, of Coshocton, O., will dis-course on "The Sorrows of the Blesset Vergin Mary." The following Wednes-day "The Lord's Supper" will be the tople, by Rev. James H. Halligan, of Vergin Mary." The following Wednesday "The Lord's Supper" will be the topic, by Rev. James H. Halligan, of Wellsburg. On the 28th inst. the Rev. John J. Daoy, of Steubenville, will take for his subject "The Mercy of God." The concluding sermon of the Lenten season will be delivered by Rev. Father Paquin, of Elm Grove.

Last evening Father Meads under a strong appeal to his hearers to repent their past sins, to make atonement to God for He was good and merciful. His goodness compelled Him to create us. God created man and endowed him with grace, free will and understanding. Man has become a prodigal child in His eyes. He has become a reprobate. In His infinite mercy, God wuld spare him if he would repent. Man's companions were vice and iniquity. The speaker drew the picture of Sodom and Gomorrah and showed how the destruction of those two ancient cities was analagous to the present state of man. They were untrue to God and hence, were destroyed.

God on entering Jerusalem, sald "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, how often have I gathered you as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings!" He shed tears over the obduracy of the inhabitants of Jerusalem. We are great sinners and prodigal children in the eyes of our Holy Father. The speaker fold his hearers to reflect on the questions: "Where am I? How did it happen I am a sinner? Where was that sanctified grace? When I first received confirmation at the hands of the bishop how innocent I was. Here I am covered with iniquity, spiritually dead. Dring from want of spiritual food for the soul. Every sinner would become reconciled to God if he would reflect. Let us up, have courage, arise and say I will go to my father; I have suffered for my blasphemy and will have regard for His teachings.

"Go to Him poor, unfortunate sinner, and as the scripture tells us "There shall be joy in heaven among the angelial dispensation of Providence. If man refuse to listen to the voice of God his be condemned to eternal dammation. Persevere in your repentance and you shall posses the Savior."
